Hei Matau Sauvignon Blanc

GRAPE VARIETY

Sauvignon Blanc is the white wine grape variety that put Marlborough on the international wine map. The Marlborough wine region, at the northern tip of the South Island, has the reputation as one of the great Sauvignon Blanc regions of the world. Originating from western France, Sauvignon Blanc is now New Zealand's most planted variety and is successfully grown throughout all its wine regions.

TASTING NOTES

Our Sauvignon Blanc grows in the Wairau Valley in Marlborough Appelation which allows us to produce a vibrant, fragrant and generous wine with honeysuckle, lemongrass and fresh ginger notes that mingle with grape fruit

HEI MATAU

The fish-hook shape of the hei matau means, profusion of food prosperity, fertility
